Certificate IV in Legal Services

NATIONALLY RECOGNISED
TRAINING

BSB40620 - Certificate IV in Legal Services

A great option for RPL for experienced legal administrators. Also suitable for relevant law enforcement. Apply today.

Have you been working in a law firm for years and have no formal qualifications to reflect this fact? Or perhaps you have less experience, but have been working in a specific area of law repeatedly? Perhaps you have law enforcement experience and are looking to transition to the legal sector.

Consider applying for RPL with CLET to get a full understanding of what your options may be. There may be full RPL if you have experience across a wide range of legal areas, or there may be partial RPL with a study pathway if you have more targeted experience.

Regardless, apply today with CLET and the RPL Team will advise you on your options.

What about Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)?

Recognition of prior learning is available on this qualification.

After reading the information provided on this qualification page, if you then decide to apply to have your knowledge and skills recognised towards this and/or other qualifications, you may click on the RPL Assessment button and complete the application form to commence the process.

Click on the following headings to learn more about the CLET recognition of prior learning (RPL) process.

Who is eligible to apply for RPL?

CLET specialises in providing recognition of prior learning (RPL) to people who are current or former police, military, emergency services, nursing and all other government at all levels. WHY? Because that is where our workplace knowledge, experience and education is focused and current.

RPL assessment is obligation free

The RPL assessment process is 'free of charge' and 'obligation free'. You only pay the RPL fee if you wish to be awarded with your qualification/s and receive the certificate/s after the assessment process is complete and you are advised of the result. We do this in recognition of the impeccable work you have done for our community.

When RPL form is submitted

After you complete the RPL Assessment form, evidence to support your knowledge and skills is required. When this is received, CLET staff will commence the initial review of your experience against the criteria of one or more qualifications. On the application form you may elect the qualification/s you wish to be assessed against or ask for a general assessment.

1. The more evidence you provide that is relevant against the qualification/s criteria you wish to be assessed against, the easier it is for CLET staff to be confident you possess the knowledge and skills required.
2. If required, a competency conversation may be conducted over the phone
