SUPPORTING DOCUMENT – COURSE EXPIRY TIMES

Courses offered by CLET are fully flexible with no due dates. All students will commence as a full time student and after the expiration of the full time study period they will convert to the fully flexible program. This will occur automatically and students do not need to take any action. The full time study periods are as follows, and are the periods approved by Centrelink and in accordance with Government training organisations:

- Accredited short program – 12 weeks
- Certificate II level – 20 weeks
- Certificate III level – 24 weeks
- Certificate IV level – 24 weeks
- Diploma level – 48 weeks (including Cert IV)
- Diploma level – 40 weeks
- Advanced Diploma level – 72 weeks

The total allocated times for completion of CLET courses are as follows:

- Accredited short program – 12 months
- Certificate II level – 12 months
- Certificate III level – 12 months
- Certificate IV level – 24 months
- Diploma level – 24 months
- Advanced Diploma level – 24-36 months (course specific)
